Wonderland Dahlia Gardens

12 Wells Place, E. Lynn, Mass.

Alice Whittier (Reed) H. C. The color of this prize winning Dahlia is a light yellow, the flower is well built with long, spike-like petals 9 to 10 inches in diameter without forcing. Always a prize winner wherever shown. $5.00

Ada Patterson (Kemp) H. C. The best white Hybrid Cactus Dahlia I have ever seen, the flowers are pure white and very large, 8-9 inches in diameter with a fine stem, will stand the hot sun and keep for days when cut. $5.00

Altamont (Kemp) Dec. Rose pink shading to American Beauty Rose, the flower is large, 8 inches and over, is practically sunproof, on a good stem, the plant grows 6 to 8 ft. high. $5.00

Amun Ra (Seal) Dec. An exhibition dahlia with shades of copper and orange on a good stem, a good keeper when cut. $1.00.

Ambassador (H. C.). Golden yellow and salmon pink, very large. My strain of this variety has always had a full center, a consistent winner wherever shown, stem perfect. $2.00.

Amarillo Grande (H. D.). Light yellow, compared with Sunny South the petals are more broad, and the flowers are much larger, in fact they are enormous and are produced in abundance. $5.00.

Aztec Glory (H. D.). Picric yellow, large flowers of most unusual formation, held erect on strong stems, as an exhibition yellow decorative, I have never seen its equal. $10.00.

Alice Green (D.). New. This is one of the very new dahlias that I have grown that stands out as one of the best. It is a strong robust grower. The foliage is very dark green, which only makes the very large orange blossoms all the more attractive. The stems are perfect, long, stiff, and hold the bloom high above the foliage. A far better dahlia than a lot costing $10.00. Stock limited. Tubers $4.00.

Amelia Lasher (Brock). A seedling from Mrs. I. de ver Warner, which is a beauty. The color is wonderful, much darker than Warner, and the stem could not be surpassed, very long, free bloomer. $5.00.

Big Brother (Bissell) (Dec.). Very free flowering and one of the largest in size. Color deep salmon with a silver sheen. Good for garden or exhibition. $2.00.

Bashful Giant (Dec.). One of the very largest grown. Color shades of pink and salmon; good keeper. $1.00.

Big Banker (Bissell) Dec. Very large and attractive flower; color a bright gold shading to a soft apricot, stem and formation are perfect, the plant grows high with the flowers well out of the foliage, a grand keeper. $3.00.

Ben Wilson (Dec.). One of the older ones that is always good, color orange red with yellow tips. $.75.

Bob Pluse (H. C.). Color claret red with whitetips, good flower on a good stem, much admired. $2.00.

Black Chief (P.). A monster flower of very dark velvety maroon almost black, measuring 10 inches. the flowers are borne on very long stems way above the foliage. It comes decorative the first of the season. $3.00.

Bay State (Dec.). A very large flower shading from champagne. Good for exhibition or garden. $2.00.

Chionia (Bissell) Dec. A 1926 introduction that is a beauty being a very large exhibition decorative of a carmine pink shading to yellow at base of petals, free flowering, stems straight. $3.50.

Chas. Stratton (Dec.). A grand exhibition flower having been awarded for size and coloring. Color is a pale gold, shaded with old rose, long stiff stems. $2.00

City of Lawrence (Dec.). This is one of the best yellows in cultivation. It scored 88 points at the trial gardens at Storrs, Conn. The flowers are mammoth. Best of habits. $2.00.

Clansman (Dec.) As an exhibition flower, it is very free, carrying six to eight blooms at one time on long stiff stems 8 to 9 inches. Color a beautiful Apricot Orange center darkening to a Jasper pink. Tubers $10.00.

Cambria (Dec.). Another one of the older ones that is always good. Rich pink shaded to white in the center, Large fine stems. $1.00.

C. P. R. (Dec.). A beautiful Dahlia, but hard to describe, a very strong growing plant of medium height, full of flowers all the season. Color is primrose shaded to lavender and carmine markings which makes it very attractive, stems are good. $3.50.

Copper King (Dec.). A most wonderful flower of enormous size, held erect on straight strong stems, color shades of copper. $5.00.

Champagne (Dec.). An immense flower, color is delightful, warm autumn shades varying from burnished copper to a dull golden champagne and chamois. $1.50.

Calizona (Dec.). Deep rich yellow, the large flowers of very distinct shape stand out boldly on splendid strong stems, making it one of the most conspicuous Dahlias in our garden. This variety received much favorable comment in the New York Botanical Gardens. $5.00.

Charles E. Hughes. This is a giant in size. Color a lemon yellow, shaded with burnt orange. Plants, $2.50.

Charlotte Fargo (Dec.). This fine large yellow decorative I think is one of the best yellows. It is a semi-dwarf plant, a very strong grower and a dahlia that is well liked by everybody. It has strong stems to carry the flower above the foliage. It is a profuse bloomer for such a large flower. It is fine for exhibition. $5.00.

Eagle Rock Beauty (H. D.) (Broomall). A more beautiful Dahlia would be hard to find, and the combination of pink and cream as displayed in this glorious creation would be difficult to imagine. No description could do it justice. You have just got to see it to get the beauty of the bloom. It cannot be beaten for beauty, and the size is enormous. $10.00.

Elite Glory (Kennedy) Dec. This great decorative has been the sensation of the Eastern Shows the past two years. Its giant flowers of rich, brilliant red was the most spectacular of Dahlias. It grows well everywhere. $5.00.

Elinor Vandever (Seal). An incomparable Dahlia of exquisite beauty and great size, having every desirable quality. The large blossoms are of a glowing, satiny, rose-pink. The flowers are of great depth and substance, and are held far above a tall sturdy bush on exceptionally long stiff stems. $2.50.

Eva Williams (F. & M.). An exhibition decorative of amethyst color with slight silver shadings, very full center, stems upright and rigid, free bloomer. $2.50.

Ethel M. (H. C.). Attractive shade of pink at base, shading lighter tips with white center. Plant is always covered with large flowers. Had a score of 88 points at trial gardens. $1.00.

Estelle Lawton Lindsey (D.). Scarlet and gold colors of the well-known Geisha; flowers seven to ten inches. $1.00.

Elizabeth A. Boston (P.). Enormous blooms of deep crimson shading to old gold tips, will hold its color entire season. $2.00.

Eva Cole (D.). One of Mr. Murphy's best. Considered one of the finest of recent introductions. A most attractive color combination of bright red and gold, wonderful for exhibitions. Will grow ten inches and over. $5.00.

Eagle Rock Sunshine (C.). It is unquestionably the best yellow cactus dahlia. $5.00.

Edna Ferber (H. C.). An exhibition Hybrid Cactus Dahlia with an exceptionally fine stiff stem. Color a glistening coral shading to old gold at base of petals. One of the first flowers to attract attention both in the field and on the exhibition table on account of its extreme beauty and size. $7.50.

Elkridge (H. C.). It is an exceptionally finely formed flower. The color is clear white. The petals are gracefully curved and of good substance. $5.00.

Francis Lobdell (H. C.). Mallow pink shaded to white in center; very stiff stem; flowers are large and perfect form. $1.00.

Faith Garibaldi (D.). A superb rose pink decorative; it has great depth as well as large size, and is held up straight on a long, stiff stalk. The blossoms are full centered and keep well when cut. $3.00.

Fort Washington (D.). New. Color is a dark mahogany red, blossoms are immense in size. A very tall grower, a very fine Dahlia. $5.00.

Fire Chief (Dec.). This is the best scarlet Dahlia that I have seen. Flowering habit profuse. Flowers average large without disbudding. Stiff stems. $10.00.

Golden Rule (Dec.). Salmon color of largest size. Will grow ten inches without any special cultivation. Grand for exhibition. $2.00.

Gorgeous (P.). Yellow and crimson. $1.50.

Geo. Harvey (Dec.). Large purplish magenta, suffused white; one of the handsomest combinations you would wish to see; a very large deep flower. $3.00.

Grenadier (Dec.). Purplish maroon shade combined with silver. The petals on one side are purple and on the other pale silver; and they quill and turn back. The whole construction is unique; large flower and good stems. $3.00.

Glory of Monmouth (Dec.). New. Rich eosine pink color, shading deeper at center, base of each petal almost a pure salmon orange, long stems, and profuse bloomer, one of our very best Dahlias. Grows five feet tall. $5.00.

General McRae (Dec.). The face of the petals is apricot buff, suffused with gold and the reverse light coral red, the flowers are very large and perfectly formed and are held erect on extra strong, stiff stems. $3.00.

George C. Meachen (Dec.). Is a large beautifully formed decorative flower and so deep and full that it is almost round. The face of the petals is pinard yellow overlaid with a golden sheen. Reverse of outer petals is nopal red, inner petals rose doree streaked with pinard yellow. The petals curl enough to show the colors on reverse side making a most beautiful flower. Stems are straight and strong enough to hold the heavy flowers erect above the foliage. $5.00.

Governor Trumbull (Dec.). A strong growing plant with large full flowers carried on long stems way above the foliage. Color is pink faintly tinged mauve. Stock limited. $5.00.

Genivieve Dresser (Kemp) P. D. Deep lavender, shading to light lavender at base of petals. Plant is semi-dwarf in habit, wide spreading and the blooms which are of large size, are borne on medium length stiff stems. The plant is very healthy and produces its bloom in the greatest profusion. A splendid garden and cut flower variety. $3.00.

Gladys Bedford (Dec.). This immense flower is one of the deepest decoratives I have ever grown. Flowers held upright on rigid stems and a wonderful bloomer. Color is old rose shading to yellow. $7.50.

Grace Schiott (Dec.). A very beautiful flower of a strontion yellow color shaded with salmon on fine stems. A good bloomer. $3.50.

Harry Sheldon, Jr. (Dec.). T. J. Murphy's wonder pink and white decorative, of huge size and great depth, for beauty it is hard to beat. $3.00.

Hercules (Dec.). A quill flower of enormous size. Color a blending of tangerine and deep yellow, excellent for exhibition. $1.00.

Harry Mayer (Dec.). Exhibition decorative of a pale amaranth pink; face of petal tinged with a deeper shade; reverse of petals a solid claret color, heavily veined. The large flowers are held erect on stiff stems. Free bloomer. $10.00.

Ila Summerville (Kemp) Dec. Congo pink, shaded lemon yellow at base of petals, lavender reverse. Flowers are beautifully finished; the petals curled and fluted giving a three-toned effect. An early and constant bloomer, and very prolific. $3.00.

Jersey's Beauty (Dec.). W. H. Waite's wonderful 1923 introduction and is still the Queen of all Dahlias, a perfect true pink, carried high above the foliage on very long stiff stems. The finest exhibition variety to date, also fine for commercial purposes. $1.00.

Jersey's Beacon (Dec.). A decided novelty of Chinese scarlet with a paler reverse, giving a two-toned effect. An exhibition flower of vigorous growth, excellent stem. $2.50.

Jersey's Mammoth (Dec.). The largest of Mr. Waite's introductions, a huge blossom, color a rich golden mahogany, a fine novelty. $2.50.

Jersey's Ideal (Dec.). The color of this variety is best described as a lavender pink; the flowers are borne face up on the stem and the long petals drooping gracefully down, make a very deep and massive flower. It is a vigorous grower, and a very free bloomer, and an ideal stem. The plants grow medium height. $5.00.

Judge Marean (Dec.). A well-known exhibition variety. It is a riot of color, ever changing as the flower ages; salmon-pink, red, orange, yellow and pure gold. A constant bloomer. $1.00.

Junior (Dec.). An enormous flower of pure lavender. This Dahlia created a sensation at the recent shows. $1.00.

Jean Roosevelt (Dec.). A large amber buff center shading through salmon-pink to a rose, with a rose reverse. $2.00.

Jersey Empress (Dec.). The flowers produced by this variety are large, having a very pleasing formation, color Anthracene violet, is sunproof, petals narrow and wavy, giving the flower great depth. $5.00.

Jersey Wonder (Dec.). New. This new autumn shade creation of Mr. Waite's is a large bloom, good stems. $5.00.

Jersey's Fiancee (Dec.) Rose pink, with the point of each floret slightly tipped gold. The flowers can be grown to a good size, and the stems are always good. $5.00.

King Solomon (H. C.). Color is a beautiful orange buff, with twisted and twirled petals forming a beautiful flower. Profuse bloomer. Stiff stems. $2.50.

Kernal (Brock) (H. C.). Large flower of a vivid scarlet red color, fine stem, great foliage and plant. $3.00.

Lyndora (Dec.). Medium yellow with suffusion of amaranth pink on the reverse, very large, form ideal having long wavy petals which show just enough of the pink in reverse to brighten and illuminate the entire flower; stem good, growth strong producing tall, robust bushes. $5.00.

Lady Dorothy (Dec.). Large orange flower with lavender sheen; grand dahlia for all purposes. $1.00.

Lady Helen (H. C.). Pinkish red with white shadings. $1.00.

Minnie Hindley (H. C.). The flowers of this beautiful variety are of immense size; color rich crimson, overlaid with a brilliant scarlet sheen, that sparkles in the sun like lustrous silk. Flowers are full centered and of good depth, and are held well above the foliage on stiff stems. Plant a vigorous grower. $3.50.

Mrs. Frances E. Bullard (Broomall). A California introduction that is one of the greatest dahlias I have ever grown. Listed as peony dahlia by the originator it grew a perfect decorative in my garden. Color is a beautiful light pink, lighter in center of flower than on outer row of petals. Flowers are immense, and borne on long straight stems. $3.50.

Mordella. One of the outstanding dahlias, especially beautiful under artificial light. It is a real art dahlia of a bright apricot buff color. Flowers are large and are held well above foliage on long graceful stems. Profuse bloomer. $2.00.

Margaret Woodrow Wilson (Dec.) (F. & M.). A large decorative Dahlia having broad petals well placed, terminating in points, making a very thick flower. Color, opalescent pink (meaning the reverse of petals are so colored as to reflect a pink tone to the whole flower). Flowers held well out of dark green foliage on perfect stems. Medium height plant. This is one of the most satisfactory dahlias I have ever grown, as the bushes are constantly covered with large blooms. $4.00.

Margaret Masson (Dec.) (F. & M.). A beautiful silvery rose pink decorative of great depth and size; wonderful exhibition variety on account of its good keeping qualities and fine upright stems; very free bloomer. $2.50.

Mary Curtin (Dec.). Large dark red blossoms with white tips. $1.00.

Meadow Lark (Dec.). A fine large flower of a new coloring, shadings of buff and straw, with the reverse side of the florets darker. This large sized flower is held high on extra long, straight stems, out from a tall plant with vigorous foliage. $2.00.

Miss California (Dec.). A large decorative dahlia, perfectly formed and beautiful in color, known as oriental fuchsia (a new color). It is tall and hardy with strong stiff stems ranging from 4 to 5 feet in length with the bloom held high above the foliage; size 9 to 10 inches in diameter. It is an excellent keeper, therefore it is a wonderful bloom for commercial as well as exhibiting purposes. $3.00.

Mrs. John T. Sheepers (Dec.). Canary yellow and pink. $1.00.

Mrs. I. De Ver Warner (Dec.). Deep mauve pink, large and fine. $1.00.

Mr. Crowley (Dec.). A glowing shade of salmon pink, with base of petals yellow; attracts immediate attention; held erect on strong stems. $1.00.

Mrs. Carl Salbach (Dec.). A beautiful shade of lavender-pink; long stiff stems. $1.00.

Mrs. E. P. Judd (Dec.). Large flowers on good stems, very much admired; beautiful rose color shaded carmine and cream. If you want the largest dahlia get this one. $2.00.

Mrs. Edward Taylor (Dec.). Immense flower of a beautiful cerise color on rigid stems high above the foliage; one of the greatly admired dahlias; one of the best to date. $5.00.

Mrs. J. J. Marshall (D. H.). One of the very best dahlias I purchased last season. A very large free-blooming variety, color a combination of buff, tan and brown, with a sheen lustre of salmon; plant has a free-growing robust habit; flowers borne high above the foliage on the best of stems; one of the very best new creations. $3.50.

Mrs. F. A. C. Perrine (F. & M.) (Dec.). One of the most beautiful exhibition decorative dahlias in existence, of a lovely shade of lilac with pale "Cattleya" reverse curiously twisted and curled petals, terminating in sharp points; a true staghorn type. Develops blooms from 8 to 10 inches in diameter on long, stiff stems. Highly recommended. $3.50.

Moll Pitcher (Dec.). The flowers are very large, 8 to 10 inches in diameter and of staghorn type, always full to the center and held on good strong stems. The color is beautiful old gold, suffused salmon pink. $3.50.

Mrs. James A. Babbitt (Dec.). A deep yellow with reverse of petals overlaid with crimson, a very unusual combination of color. The flowers are immense in size and very attractive. $1.00.

Miss M. E. Dingee (Brock) (Dec.). An enormous flower of color hard to describe. It is a combination of salmon, orchid, and yellow, on the best of stems. $5.00.

Mimosa (H. C.). New. A most wonderful dahlia for garden or exhibition. Stands up well when cut. The color is canary yellow shading nearly white at the tips. Large flower and good stem. $5.00.

Marmion (Dec.) (Mastick). This flower is of such enormous size and great depth and looks so massive among the surrounding dahlias as to dwarf them all. The long cane-like stems hold the huge blooms erect. Color is pure golden yellow with bronze suffusion on reverse of petals, and the deeper bronzy tone on the high full center and outline of same shade around each petal enhances the beauty of the flower and gives it an unusual appearance. $5.00.

Nature's Masterpiece (Dec.). A most elegant, rich combination of old rose, cinnamon and metallic bronze, blended into one color, suffused with mulberry. In addition to this its effectiveness is increased by a violet shaded reflex. A most wonderful dahlia that will soon gain a national reputation as one of the greatest dahlias of all time. $7.50.

Nancy Sue Lang (H. D.). Immense star-like flowers, red tipped gold, larger and stronger grower than Mrs. E. L. Lindsey, habit of plant is dwarf and very robust. A flower that attracts immediate attention. $10.00.

Our Country (Dec.). The ground color is a very deep purple, while the florets are heavily tipped white; a very deep heavy flower, always coming with a full center and never producing any solid colored flowers; its only fault is its stem, which does not hold the large blossoms upright; but on account of its wonderful color it should be grown in every garden. $2.50.

Paul Revere (Bissell) (Dec.). This is the best dahlia of the color to date. The flowers are large, full centered, and of good depth, and are a rich crimson color, overlaid with a brilliant scarlet satiny sheen. Flowers of this Dahlia are about as near sun proof as any in existence, never showing more than the slightest trace of burning, even in the hottest weather, and then only on the old petals that are falling. $3.50.

Premier Clemenceau (C.). A rich lemon yellow about half the length of petal then shading to white at tips. $2.50.

Paradise (H. C.). A bold, massive flower of the George Walter type, creamy old rose, so blended as to give it a striking brown tone. $2.00.

Pop Stewart (H. C.). This is a remarkable flower of great size. I can recommend it as one of the finest dahlias of its shade in existence. Color, purest lilac pink; long stiff stems. $2.00.

Plum Island (D.) (Bissell). One of the big ones. A rich plum color on a good stem; grand exhibition flower. $2.50.

Polar Snow (D.). Greatest pure white dahlia ever produced; fine type on strong straight stems. $2.50.

Papillon (H. C.). A beautiful shade of old rose with gold; a very free bloomer and good stems. $2.00.

Paul Michael (Dec.). Flower of largest size. Color pure gold. $1.00.

Pride of Stratford (Dec.). The color is cadmium orange shading to light orange yellow at the base of petals, reverse rose doree, very large flowers of splendid form, held erect on fine stiff stems. This is one of the very best Dahlias. $5.00.

Primula Rex (Dec.). The giant flowers of light cream or primrose color are certainly far ahead of anything in its class or color. The bushes of medium height are vigorous in growth, and stems are stiff and hold the mammoth blossoms erect. $5.00.

Queen of the Garden Beautiful (Dec.). In this we have one of our finest novelties. A very large flower, measuring from 9 to 12 inches across, it also has great depth, stems are strong, and the blossoms keep well when cut. $5.00.

Rose Fallon (Dec.) (Harding). The most wonderful flower for size, stem, and in color a rich deep old gold of the finest type. This variety makes a sensation wherever it has been shown. I consider this one of the best dahlias grown. My stock is perfect. $5.00.

Radio (Dec.). This immense dahlia is surely a wonder; blooms 10 to 12 inches in diameter without dis-budding. Color is ox-blood red, bordered yellow, with yellow reverse. $2.00.

Rollo Boy (H. C.). Blooms are of great size carried erect on strong stems and are of a delicate shade of amber shading to old gold. For exhibition purposes it is one of the best. $2.00.

Roman Eagle (F. & M.) (Dec.). A flower that is typically an Autumn shade, which has helped make the dahlia "King of the Autumn Seasons." Large exhibition decorative of a flaming, brilliant, burnished copper color. Flowers held well above dark green foliage on stiff stems. $3.00.

Rockwood (Dec.). The color is like that of the popular Mrs. Charles Russell rose, being a pure bright cerise rose, without the faintest touch of magenta; the flowers are immense, with good depth, and held upright on splendid stems. $2.00.

Rosa Bonheur (H. C.). A graceful combination of dainty form and clear color. Ivory white center, shading to a beautiful shell pink. Free blooming and splendid stem. Prize winner always. $2.00.

Robert Scott (Dec.). New. A very beautiful apricot yellow with rose shading, extra large bold flower, also has great depth, excellent stems and a fine bloomer. One of the most popular in the garden. $3.50.

- R. T. Edwards (Dec.). A semi-dwarf grower, but what it lacks in height it makes up in the free blooming and the very large size of the flowers. Color is a pale lavender. $5.00.
- Roycroft (H. C.). Large size, excellent form, petals rolled to tips and never showing an open center to the end of the season. One of the first to bloom. Always show a mass of perfect flowers until frost. Color is cinnamon buff. $3.00.
- Renzi (Dec.). A very large flower of great depth, color a bright scarlet with a reverse of gold, flowers will grow 7 to 10 inches on stiff stems. $1.50.
- Sagamore (Dec.). In this we have a wonderful long stemmed exhibition, and cut flower variety. Color is golden yellow. $1.50.
- Susan Lee (Dec.). Orange and red. One of the outstanding varieties of the largest class. First price in largest flower class in several of the Eastern shows. $2.00.
- Sanhican's Magnate (F. & M.) (Dec.). As the name indicates, this is one of the big fellows of the Dahlia Kingdom. Exhibition decorative of pale amaranth face tinged with a deeper shade, reverse of petals a solid claret color, heavily veined. The large flowers are held erect on very stiff stems, profuse bloomer, medium height plants, dark green foliage. $4.00.
- Sanhican's Bluebird (F. & M.) (Dec.). The color of this dahlia is a most uncommon shade, the outer petals at maturity are bright violet-blue, while the center retains the violet tint the nearest approach to a blue dahlia. Strong, wiry stem. $2.50.
- Snowdrift (Dec.). This giant white deserves its name. A very full, deep-built flower with broad, waxy petals. $1.00.
- Susan G. Tevis (Dec.). This is a variety that produces an abundance of flowers throughout the season. It is among the first to bloom and holds size to the end of the season. The color is best described as a deep shade of lilac with a bluish sheen; a very large, graceful bloom of fine depth; a vigorous grower with fine, healthy foliage. Considered by many as the best 1923 novelty introduction. $2.00.

Sun Maid (H. C.). Beautiful soft blending of orange and gold. Flowers are very large and of perfect form, have good depth and are borne on long, stiff stems. Profuse bloomer. $3.50.

Silver Tip (Dec.). Carmine shading to chocolate with very distinct white tips. $2.00.

Sanhican's King (Dec.). It is a variety that ought to achieve universal popularity due to its fine habits of growth. The color is rich gold shading to bright-salmon at the center. Long stiff stem. $3.50.

Tom Mix (Dec.). There is no other dahlia in the world can compare with this one in its arrangement of so many indescribable combination of colors, there is red, yellow and other colors with most every petal tipped pure white. $2.00.

Trentonian (F. & M.) (Dec.). A giant decorative of a shade that appeals and captivates at one glance; the color is that of an Indian's skin, a wonderful blending of old gold, amber, and coppery bronze. $2.00.

The Bandit (Reed) H.C. One of the most striking Hybrid Cactus Dahlias to date. Color spectrum red with backs of petals buff yellow, reverse petals twist and curl, which makes the large blossoms very attractive. Flowering habit profuse, stems are strong and erect, carrying the flowers on the top. $5.00.

Tommy Atkins (Dec.). Color flaming scarlet, a somewhat different color than any other dahlia, fine form and full centered and very large, and strong stiff stems. $2.00.

The Telegram (Marshall) (Dec.). "New." One of the most admired dahlias in my garden the past season. The bushes were covered all season with beautiful orange and white blossoms. Stems are stiff, although not long; bushes grow quite tall. $3.00.

The Surprise (Dec.). Color a light shade of wine, very large flower on a good stem. $5.00.

The Pirate (Dec.). A massive, well formed flower of an attractive deep maroon crimson, almost a deep purple in color. If you want something entirely different, this one should please you. $5.00.

- Uncle Tom (Dec.). If you want the nearest to black of any dahlia that grows you should have this one. It is a free bloomer of large blossoms held facing on good stiff stems. $3.50.
- U. S. A. (H. C.). Color is a rich glowing orange. This massive flower is a prize winner. Beautiful. $1.00.
- Violetta (H. C.). Large flowers of a petunia violet color produced on stout stems; a greatly admired variety. $1.00.
- Walter Hindley (Dec.) (Bissell). Very large flower borne on a stem stiff as a cane. Very free bloomer. Color, rich claret wine. A flower that will create a sensation wherever grown. $3.00.
- Wizard of Oz (Dec.). A very large flower and a strong growing plant. Color a rare shade of amber pink. $2.00.
- Wanda Miller (Dec.). A new dahlia. The same color as "Our Country," deep purple with white tips, never sports too solid color, large flowers held erect on very long stiff stems. Early and a free bloomer. $3.00.
- Warren's Jumbo. This is an immense gold decorative, one of the most fascinating dahlias that I have seen. Stock limited. $5.00.
- Wonderland (Dec.) (Bissell). In this variety we have one of the most unique novelties introduced in recent years. Flowers of large exhibition type, face of petals are of a pleasing hue of violet carmine and reverse a deep rose pink. Petals are twisted and curled, making a charming two-toned effect of wonderful beauty. $3.00.
- World's Best White (Dec.). This dahlia has stood the test of time and is now near the top as a white dahlia. Winning prizes galore, very large bloom on best of stems. $2.50.
- W. J. Erwin (Dec.). This is the best lavender purple dahlia that we have seen. It is new and should be in every select collection. It has size, the best of stems, and is a free bloomer. $5.00.
- William G. (C.). This is the largest cactus I have ever grown, often over ten inches. The stems are long and slim, but stiff, and they bend with the great weight of the large blossoms. The color is unusual, burnt orange. $3.50.
